

Maine Parent Federation and Franklin County Children's Task Force cordially invites you to join us for an evening of information and conversation.

Topics:

Working for Change: Using the Power of a Personal Story

Skills for Effective Parent Advocacy

When: September 1, 2010

Where: University of Maine at Farmington (North Dining Hall)

Time: 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm

Cost: Free (Childcare, light dinner and travel stipends are available)

Registration is required.

For more information and to register contact:

Franklin County Children's Task Force at 778-6960

- Childcare will be provided and take place at Franklin County Children's Task Force
- *Food, beverages and parent stipend will be provided by Maine Parent Federation

Funding provided by National Family Advocacy Support and Training (FAST) Project, a project of PACER Center in collaboration with Maine Parent Federation.